

Rainbow of Emotions

A Selection of Poems By
Djehane Hassouna

Rainbow of emotions is a compilation of Djehane's various emotional ups and downs, relevant to events in her life and in the world.

Each chapter has a specific theme: reflection, hope, nature, creativity, sorrow, time and fear. The first chapter reflects on the relationship between parents and children as well as nostalgia for the past. The second chapter focuses on hope and faith in the future. The third chapter addresses the versatility of nature and the interaction among its dwellers. The remaining chapters delve into creativity, melancholy, eternal wisdom, the passage of time, illness and old age. The final chapter focuses on the desire for freedom, the fear of losing it, and the impact of war.

Djehane's unique approach of adding a little whimsy to the deep dimensions of her imagination makes the book enjoyable to read, thus creating a deep connection with readers and showing them new perspectives.

About the Author

Djehane's poetic journey began during her childhood in Egypt. French Poetry inspired her, and her grandfather encouraged her to verbally express herself... She has never stopped writing ever since. She writes poems about nature, feelings and emotions, about life as a whole. She expresses her hopes, fears, triumphs, failures, gratitude and resentment.

Djehane's fascination with the human imagination inspired her Master's thesis at Vermont College and her love for the sea shaped her PhD dissertation at the University of Pittsburgh.

Djehane feels blessed to be gifted with a poetic vision, and she considers every poem to be a unique masterpiece. As she writes and her emotions take shape into verse, Djehane becomes one with her poetry.

A Look Inside

Being Myself

Being myself is not so simple! It's a challenge!
Thinking outside the box, refusing to follow the crowd,
Portraying myself as I really am, unique in what I do.
Feeling the way I like, thinking the way I want,
Believing the way I choose, behaving the way I opt to,
Comprehending the world in my very own manner,
And conveying things as I have interpreted them!
It is not so simple to stand out in broad daylight,
Declaring what I stand for, what I honestly believe,
What I'd like to be appreciated for..
I definitely do not feel the need to change.
It's not easy being myself! Yet, I'm not giving up!
